

Bright Horizons Honored as “Company that Cares” For Third Straight Year

[WATERTOWN, Mass., -- March 18, 2010] Bright Horizons Family Solutions®, the world’s leading provider of employer-sponsored child care, early education, and work/life solutions, today announced that it has been named to the Center for Companies That Care Honor Roll for the third straight year.

Bright Horizons® was selected to receive this honor by an independent panel of professionals in a variety of industries. The company earned high marks for the 10 characteristics inherent to a “Company That Cares” that include: developing employees and leaders, supporting the pursuit of work/life balance, sustaining a work environment founded on dignity and respect for all employees, and volunteering in the community.

“Bright Horizons has been committed to making a difference in the lives of families and children for more than twenty years, and we’ve worked hard to ensure that our vibrant company culture and dedication to the greater community are stronger than ever,” said Bright Horizons Chief Executive Officer David Lissy. “We recognize that the strength of our Bright Horizons community is directly connected to our ability to deliver high quality care, education and service to the many clients and families we have the privilege to serve and to our commitment be the employer of choice for people who have a mission and passion to make a difference in their communities and for each other.”

To learn more about the 2010 Companies that Care Honor Roll and Center for Companies That Care, visit www.companies-that-care.org.

###

About Bright Horizons

Bright Horizons Family Solutions® (www.brighthorizons.com) is the world’s leading provider of employer-sponsored child care, early education and work/life solutions.

Bright Horizons® serves more than 800 clients across the U.S., Europe, and Canada, with programs including child care and early education, back-up care, elder care and college counseling.