

Growing

Bright Horizons
Early Education & Preschool

Readers Review

Book recommendations to help your child spark a lifelong love of reading

Featured Book of Excellence

Thank You

Written and Illustrated by Jarvis

Preschool - Young School-Age

Thank You is a warm and engaging book that celebrates gratitude in a way children can easily understand. Through simple text and charming illustrations, Jarvis shows how saying “thank you” can make everyday moments feel special. The story encourages kindness and appreciation. Its gentle tone and relatable examples help children learn the importance of gratitude in their own lives. This book is a lovely choice for nurturing empathy and positive social skills.

Other book recommendations featuring gratitude

Infants and Toddlers

The Thank You Book

Written by Danna Smith;

Illustrated by Juliana Perdomo

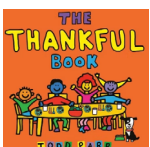

Preschool - Young School-Age

Thank You, Earth:

A Love Letter to Our Planet

Written and Illustrated by

April Pulley Sayre

Infants and Toddlers

The Thankful Book

Written and Illustrated by

Todd Parr

Preschool - Young School-Age

Thank You, Omu!

Written and Illustrated by

Oge Mora

Make reading a joyful part of your child's daily routine.

BrightHorizons.com/GrowingReaders